

<https://slowtheflow.org/>

Slow the Flow save H₂O is a great guide that shows you all of the ways that you can conserve water. There are step by step tutorials on what to do and how to adjust to your needs. Tips on fertilization and planting to get the best yard with the least amount of need. They also offer site visits by USU extension to help you set up your own system for free. There are links to qualified water efficient landscapers as well as rebates for installing a smart irrigation clock that monitor the weather to help you conserve. There are also rebates for using water efficient fixtures in your home.

<https://conservewater.utah.gov/guide.html>

Lawn Watering App on the Itunes or Google Play. This resource tells you how much water to apply based on your landscaping. It follows the state ET rates and precipitation and adjusts for your system to tell you how much water to apply per day. There are also great article that show you what to plant in order to save on water costs while maintaining a beautiful landscape.